

People and Things : An Attempt to Connect Art and Humanity (Classic Reprint)

Harold John Massingham

Excerpt from People and Things: An Attempt to Connect Art and Humanity I have again set forth a few notions here about the relation of government to human beings and the pleasant things of a life which my reader will understand and interpret in the spirit rather than to the letter. If modern civilisation is found wanting, a change will have to come - a change that will be impotent and defruetive unless it be one of thought, attitude and values.
