

People in London : One Photographer. Five Years. The Life of a City

Richard Slater

London is one of the worlds greatest cities. Filled with people of all races, religions and nationalities, and packed with energy, it is a dynamic melting pot and a colourful testimony to the human spirit. Over five years, photographer Richard Slater has traversed the streets of the city, photographing, meeting and talking with ordinary Londoners from all walks of life. The result is this rich and vibrant celebration of London in its many different guises. Accompanied by insightful commentary that tells the stories behind the images, the book features Londons tribes - whether identified by class, wealth, or taste the extraordinary number of faith groups the populations diversity of race and ethnicity the creative and political life of Londons streets the numerous festivals and celebrations that take place throughout the year and, finally, the many surprises that lie hidden within the metropolis. Utterly unique, People in London is a celebration of diversity, and a love letter to this great city.
