

People of Modern Africa : Survival on the Streets of Lagos, Nigeria

Carol Gibson

Despite the fact that Africa is plagued by insurgencies, unemployment, and dwindling economies, there are people with an indomitable spirit who rise above their circumstances. A happy and industrious people who cannot afford to give up. People with definitive goals who work within their realistic abilities to achieve their targets. This book is a collection of photographs featuring the inspiring and touching pictures of Lagos City. From the C.E.O in his well-furnished office down to the beggar on the street, everyone has a story even the buildings and trees do too. People of Modern Africa reminds you to go and pursue your dreams.
