

Perfect People in an Imperfect World

Christin Brooke Isbill

Here is a book that is guaranteed to cause pre-teens and teens everywhere to set aside their beloved gaming and miraculously fall in love with reading and learning! Why? Its because this little gem contains the answers to questions the youth of today have been agonizingly seeking for so long. Moreover, it is written by one of their own--a very wise, spitfire of a girl, Christin Brooke Isbill and Author David McDonald! Follow this precocious, verging-teen as she navigates her way through some of lifes most difficult problems while teaching her peers in their own unique language how to do the same. Additionally, moms and dads will appreciate how she says much to make their job of parenting easier. Yet, it is the pre-teens and teens who will shout for joy as they finally have a voice that clearly speaks their hearts desires and gives them solutions to so many of lifes perplexing mysteries.
