

Perfection of Life

Jorge Galvan,Jorge Galvn

When Alejandro and Nilo Rodriguez crossed the Mexican border, they never thought they would see their family destroyed. After being abandoned by their parents, Alejandro and his older brother must learn to survive on their own through drug abuse, domestic violence and abandonment. These two brothers make it through with each other by their side. When life tears Alejandro from his older brother he has to cope with hatred, loneliness, depression, traumas and suicide, living a hell so few humans have ever encountered. Dedicated to the young adults of today's society, Perfection of Life demonstrates the feelings and stages of teenage life. An inspirational story to make us appreciate what we take for granted everyday.
