Peristeri BC (in Greek: Gymnastikos Syllogos Peristeriou KAE), is a Greek professional basketball club that was founded on October 22, 1971. The club is located in Peristeri, Greece, which is a suburban municipality of the city of Athens. The team competes in the Greek League. In 1983, Peristeri Athens won the first place of the second division of the pro Greek A League, the Greek A2 League. In 1989, Peristeri again won the A2 Division Championship, for the first time while competing under the Greek Leagues current competition format. In the following season of 1989-90, Peristeri fought contests for the first time in the Greek A1 League.
