

The Perfect Gift

J. Samia Mair

Sarah is upset because she cannot find an Eid gift for her mother. She decides to take a walk along her secret path in the woods, which always makes her feel better. There, she not only finds the perfect gift, but also learns to appreciate nature and what it means to live in submission to Allah (swt). A Perfect Gift would only be suitable for someone as special as a mother. Take some excellent learning points away as you read about the creativity of a young girl and how with a little imagination she finds a gift that is just absolutely perfect!
