

The Perfectly Painted Picture

Mildred Juanita Hart

The Perfectly Painted Picture: With every stroke of the brush life helps us to formulate our portrait, the telling of our past and present stories. Our foundation represents the canvas upon which our picture is painted. Our foundation grounds us. We depend upon it to sustain us through faith and fear, triumph and trial, dreams and doubt, duty and dysfunction, love and loss, grief and grace, mishaps and miracles. With spectrums of color and shades of gray our base helps to develop, determine, and reveal our future stories.
